SCARSDALE PUBLIC LIBRARY | 54 Olmsted Road, Scarsdale

Among the world's outstanding violinists, Aaron Rosand is a true violinist's violinist. He is "one of the great living exponents of romantic violin music," according to The New York Times, and has made "some of the greatest recordings of this century" (Gramophone Magazine). As Dorothy Richard Starling Chair of Violin Studies at Curtis and in master classes throughout the world, Rosand seeks to impart qualities embodied in his own playing – the Russian school of Auer and the Ysaÿe tradition – to a new generation.
