

Be a part of “one of the finest high school orchestras in the United States!”

JAMES JORDAN, FORMER DIRECTOR OF MUSIC, NYS COUNCIL ON THE ARTS

AUDITIONS! HBMS Festival Orchestra

for oboe, bassoon, horn, trumpet, percussion and strings

Hoff-Barthelson Music School's Festival Orchestra is a full symphonic orchestra for high school students at the highest level of technical ability and musical artistry. Under the direction of Jun Nakabayashi, the Festival Orchestra performs three concerts annually; two are with guest artists of international stature. The orchestra meets on Tuesday evenings from 7:15 - 9:30 pm. Members participate in sectional coachings with musicians from the New York Philharmonic each spring. Festival Orchestra auditions are open to all high school students, whether studying at HBMS or elsewhere. Students not yet in high school but who demonstrate exceptional ability and maturity may also audition.

Tuition, Merit Scholarships, and Financial Aid: Annual tuition is $1,100 and prorated for mid-year enrollments. Merit scholarships are available to students who play bass, oboe, bassoon, horn or trumpet and demonstrate the highest level of technical ability and musical artistry during their audition. Applicants will be informed of scholarship award decisions when notified about their audition results.

Additionally, Hoff-Barthelson Music School welcomes need-based financial aid applications from students with household incomes of up to 450% of New York State's 2022-23 Reduced Price Lunch Eligibility levels. Learn more at <https://hbms.org/register/financial-aid/>.
