Early Childhood Music Education Specialist (PT)

Job posting: March 2022

Founded in 1944, Hoff-Barthelson Music School (HBMS) is one of the country's premier community music schools with a national reputation for unsurpassed excellence. The School serves more than 800 students of all ages and levels of advancement from 50 Westchester municipalities on its campus in Scarsdale, NY, and another 250 at partner organizations including Head Start Centers, healthcare facilities, and social service agencies throughout Westchester County. The 60-member faculty comprises many of the region's most distinguished educators.

Hoff-Barthelson offers comprehensive individual instruction in both classical music and jazz; a sequential musicianship curriculum encompassing music theory, ear training, composition, music history, and music technology; four orchestras, four choirs, and over 30 chamber ensembles; master classes by world renowned artists; scores of workshops, recitals and concerts; a robust Suzuki program; early childhood instruction; outreach programs; and a five-week summer music and arts program.

POSITION DESCRIPTION

Early Childhood Music Specialists/Instructors report to the Dean and are primarily responsible for providing classroom instruction to students in the School's Musicianship and Early Childhood Music Programs. These programs include weekly classes for children ages 2 through 7 that combine singing, listening, and movement. Classes are held onsite at HBMS and possibly at partner schools and organizations located throughout Westchester County, New York.

AREAS OF RESPONSIBILITY

- Teach music classes as directed.
- Prepare course materials for classroom instructors as appropriate.
- Maintain student or class records and other required records as required.
- Communicate effectively and in a timely manner with colleagues (administration and faculty), students, and families.
- Participate in professional development sessions and trainings to prepare to work in a variety of school and community environments.
- Maintain compliance with the School's Code of Conduct and with training that the School provides in Preventing Discrimination and Harassment for New York.

AVAILABLE CLASSES

- Multiple teaching opportunities are available on Mondays and Tuesdays during after school hours starting in September 2023.
- Other opportunities may become available Wednesday-Friday during after school hours and on Saturdays, 8:00 am – 3:00 pm.

QUALIFICATIONS

Education: Master of Music or Master of Music Education, degree, or equivalent experience appropriate to this position. Or a Bachelor of Music Education degree with 5 or more years of professional experience. Dalcroze teacher certification preferred. Other certifications or training (e.g., Kodaly) are also suitable for this position.

Experience: Minimum of 5 years professional experience preferred working in community arts education.

Key skills and traits: The ideal candidate will possess the following key skills and traits:

- Passionate collaborative artist who communicates a deep love of music in her/his work with students
- Shares the School's mission to inspire and develop each student's potential through excellence in music education with a commitment to creativity, collaboration, and community.
- Possesses excellent interpersonal and organizational skills.
- Enthusiastic collaborator who enjoys working with colleagues – faculty and administration – to meet the needs of students and the School.
- Wishes to work in an environment that values personal and professional growth.
- Comfortable using standard technologies including email, Microsoft Word and Google Docs.
- Willing to learn new technologies that are part of the School's day-to-day operations: ASAP Connected Registration System, and PayCom Payroll.
