

MASTER CLASSES

Jennifer Frautschi

VIOLIN

Saturday, May 2 @ 2:00 pm

Two-time Grammy nominee and Avery Fisher Career Grant recipient Jennifer Frautschi has appeared as soloist with many of the nation's leading orchestras, including the Chicago Symphony, Los Angeles Philharmonic, Minnesota Orchestra, and St. Paul Chamber Orchestra. A passionate chamber musician, she is an artist-member of the Boston Chamber Music Society and has performed at Chamber Music Northwest, Music@Menlo, the Chamber Music Society of Lincoln Center, and numerous festivals including Ojai, Santa Fe, Seattle, Spoleto, and La Jolla SummerFest.

Her wide-ranging discography includes Grammy-nominated recordings of Schoenberg's Concerto for String Quartet and Orchestra and String Quartet No. 3 with the Fred Sherry Quartet, Stravinsky's Violin Concerto with Robert Craft and the Philharmonia Orchestra of London, and, with pianist John Blacklow, Schumann's three violin sonatas and American Duos, featuring works by contemporary American composers.

A Pasadena native, Frautschi studied at the Colburn School, Harvard, the New England Conservatory, and the Juilliard School. She performs on the 1722 "ex-Cádiz" Antonio Stradivarius and teaches in the graduate program at Stony Brook University.

Master class coaching by guest artists has been a cornerstone of Hoff-Barthelsson's educational philosophy since the School's founding in 1944. This vital tradition continues this season with an outstanding roster of world-class musicians and educators, including Ronald Lowry, cello; Emi Ferguson, flute; Janna Baty, voice; Victor Cayres, piano; Jennifer Frautschi, violin; composers Haralabos Stafylakis and Max Grafe; and members of the New York Philharmonic.

Master classes are open to the public to observe free of charge, inviting audiences of all ages to witness the creative exchange firsthand. Observers gain rare insight into professional artistry, technique, and musical decision-making, making each session an inspiring and accessible opportunity to learn from world-class artists.
