WILMA MACHOVER RESIDENCY AND COMMISSION

Annually, in a partnership with Copland House initiated in part by Wilma, Hoff-Barthelson engages an emerging composer to collaboratively develop a new work for a student chamber ensemble which premieres the work at the School's Music of Our Time Festival.

Generous support to the Machover Fund underwrites the composer's commission and honorarium and also collaboration with HB community students, faculty, and families.

NILO ALCALA'S works have been hailed as "highly revealing, insightful" (Inquirer.Net), "marvelously ear-opening experience" (Musical America Worldwide), "powerful . . . spectacularly engaging" (Lauri's List), "exuberant and at times hypnotic" (Cultural Cocktail Hour), and "scaled peaks of genius" (Asian Journal).

Nilo is carving a legacy for Philippine Arts internationally. A trailblazing artist, he is the first Philippine-born composer to receive the Copland House Residency Award, as well as to be commissioned by Grammy-winner Los Angeles Master Chorale.
