

Pathways to Private Lessons

FOR PARENTS WITH CHILDREN AGES 3-6

Tuesday, April 18, 2023 | 8:00 pm | on Zoom

What's next in your child's musical journey? Join Hoff-Barthelson Music School Dean Christopher Kenniff and Associate Dean Kathy Jones for an informative online discussion via Zoom about starting your child in private lessons at HBMS.

Discussion topics include:

- How do you know when your child is developmentally ready to begin private instruction?
- How do you identify the best teacher?
- How do you select the right instrument?

RSVP here or use the QR Code to receive the Zoom link.

Christopher Kenniff serves as the Dean at Hoff-Barthelson Music School overseeing faculty and programs; he is also a member of the School's faculty teaching classical guitar. He works with the School's Associate Dean and Registration Team to place students in lessons, classes, and ensembles; and with families and faculty to monitor student progress.

Kathryn Jones has been a part of Hoff-Barthelson for 24 years; currently serving as Associate Dean as well as on the piano and musicianship faculty. She has over twenty years experience in early childhood music education. She oversees the performance program with the Dean and assists in student placements.
