

Westchester Double Reed Band

The Westchester Double Reed Band is an intergenerational ensemble that welcomes the participation of intermediate to advanced oboe, English horn, and bassoon players, grades 6 through adults.

- Celebrate your interest in double reeds by performing baroque, classical and popular repertoire arranged for a double reeds-only ensemble.
- Learn from expert faculty and double reed guest artists.
- Share repertoire playlists and music, summer festival ideas, college recording planning, reed refinement time and more.
- Monthly rehearsals and final performance at Hoff Barthelson Music School.

INSTRUCTOR: Elizabeth Condon and Double Reed Guest Artists

AUDITIONS: An interview and short audition is required

- Students playing at NYSSMA Level 5 and 6 are welcome to audition with their solo.
- Adult students are welcome to audition with an etude or solo with contrasting movements.

Online interview and audition appointments are available

- Students may audition live online, or may submit a URL to a video recording.
- Request a live audition or submit your video audition HERE.
